PROMINENT BUSINESS MAN COMPLIMENTED.

The current number of the Financial Review, New York, has the following to say about the recent meeting of the Virginia Bankers' Association and Mr. J. L. Bilsoly, cashier of the Bank of Portsmouth.

The Virginia State Bankers' Association recently held its annual convention at Richmond, and its seventh annual convention, which was pronounced one of its most interesting meetings. In its election of officers and standing committees the members of the association chose men who are representative bankers, and whose services will be very useful. There was also much good feeling and harmony displayed. One of the executive committee, J. L. Bilsoly, through his long connection with banking, is known in this city and in his own State, he being a cashier of the Bank of Portsmouth. Mr. Bilsoly understands finance in all its aspects, and his experience has been rendered more useful through his careful study and close observation. He is well thought of here, where he is known to all the prominent men of affairs.

LIVERY MEN ORGANIZE. The liverymen of this section yesterday organized the Norfolk, Portsmouth and Berkley Liverymen's Association, which has for its object the maintenance of a uniform scale of prices for hack hire. The officers of the association are: J. V. Pritchett, of Norfolk, president; O. L. Williams, vice-president, and Martin Westbrook, secretary and treasurer.

Passed Assistant Paymaster C. Conrad is ordered to special duty in the Bureau of Supplies and Accounts, Navy Department.

Commander J. D. J. Kelley is ordered to duty in connection with the inspection of merchant ships at the port of New York.

BASEBALL NOTES. Kelley resigned. Adams umpired. Kelley joined Norfolk. Portsmouth won Thursday. The betting yesterday was 3 to 1 on Norfolk.

Were the gamblers "tipped off?" Portsmouth out-hit and out-played Norfolk. Yet they lost. Who is to blame? They play this afternoon. Adams will be "good."

Moises against Flannagan. Go out "rooters" and "root." The team is determined to make it two out of three.

Go out and help them by your presence and "rooting."

The bankers are going to Ocean Grove, N. J., for two weeks' outing, but will stop en route at Norfolk and Old Point.

Mr. W. S. Witham, who is at the head of several prominent banks in Georgia, is in charge of the arrangements for the trip. The party will be accompanied by Traveling Passenger Agent W. B. Clements, of the Seaboard Air Line.

A BIG SHIPMENT. The big steamer Strathaird, which has been taking on cotton seed oil at Port No. 6, of the Seaboard Air Line, will leave to-day for Hamburg. She will carry 38 carloads of the oil, consisting of 4,800 barrels. She also has on board cedar logs. They will be carried to Bavaria, where pencils will be made from them. She will have 4,000 tons of freight. This is perhaps the largest shipment made from this port at any one time.

TO BLOW UP A WRECK. The tug Nezzie Scott, with Lieut. Quimby in command, has been ordered to proceed to Winter Quarters Shoal to blow up the wreck of the sunken schooner Frank S. Hall, which is dangerous to navigation. It was said at the navy yard yesterday that the Nezzie Scott would probably sail during the evening.

THE BEST PRESCRIPTION FOR CHILLS AND FEVER is a bottle of GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC. The formula is plainly printed on each package. It is simply Iron and Quinine in a tasteless form and is compounded in correct proportions. The reason initiators do not advertise their formula is because they know you would not buy their medicine if you knew its ingredients. Grove's is the only one of its kind. It has been used for years and is the only one that has ever been sold throughout the entire malarial section of the United States. No cure, no pay. Price 50c.

He went to the office of Dr. P. M. Morgan, who rendered medical attention. He was able to be out yesterday, but was suffering considerable pain.

WARNED AGAINST FAKE. A young lady near Camden, N. J., who is an invalid, writes to the postmaster of Berkley about a "doctor" who pretends to cure all manner of diseases by the art of magnetic healing, and stamps him as a fake, and insists that the postmaster warn the people of the town against being imposed upon by this quack. She writes that she paid him in advance for a prescribed course of treatment which was in keeping with the rules of the college from which he graduated. She says she knew him in his community as Professor Mason, and that after staying there for some time he left very unceremoniously. She says she afterwards located him at Norfolk, Va., where she says he is practicing his art.

The postmaster stated yesterday that he was confident that he had located the man in Berkley. His correspondent signs her name Maggie M. Conyngham and seems to be much distressed about the loss of the money she paid the doctor.

A DOOR TO THE KAISER'S DOMAIN.

The pet fortress of the German kaiser is that at the eastern terminus of the bridge over the Vistula at Marienburg, a part of which is shown in the accompanying illustration. The entrances to this Marienburg bridge are furnished with massive steel gates, loopholed for rifle fire, and in the event of an invasion of northern Germany any sudden capture of such an important strategic position would be no easy matter. The fortress proper is connected with embowered outworks, which could promptly be garrisoned and converted into one of the most formidable defenses in time of need.
